Our Partner University

University of Wales
Trinity Saint David

The University of Wales Trinity Saint David (UWTSD)'s 1828 Royal Charter is the oldest in England and Wales after the universities of Oxford and Cambridge. HRH The Prince of Wales is the University's Patron.

UWTSD's main campuses are situated in Swansea, Lampeter and Carmarthen, as well as the Wales International Academy of Voice in Cardiff, a campus in London and a centre in Birmingham.

The University has a tradition and reputation for high-quality learning extending over the past 200 years. They offer industry-led programmes designed to prepare graduates for employment.

Dual Award Degrees

IUMW offer Dual Award programmes in collaboration with UWTSD. Students who successfully complete their programme will receive certification from both IUMW and UWTSD.

Dual Award Benefits

- Become more competitive in the job market
- A Dual Award would help you in your application for study in the UK, or at universities using a UK based education system
- Opportunity to study in the UK at UWTSD
- Attend a graduation ceremony in Wales
- Join the UWTSD Alumni Association upon graduation for international networking opportunities

Assurance of Quality

All IUMW programmes, including the Dual Award programmes, are approved by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (MQA). Students can also be assured of the strength and quality of their award, as the courses are structured, monitored and assessed by two different institutions – both IUMW and the University of Wales Trinity Saint David.

Study in the

UK

Travel to one of the world's best study abroad destinations for a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

All Dual Award programmes include an option of studying at our partner university, UWTSD in the United Kingdom, for an additional fee. UWTSD has attractive campuses in Carmarthen, Lampeter, and Swansea, which are all situated in beautiful areas of Wales. Your programme selection will determine which campus you will attend.

IUMW's programmes are carefully shaped to be aligned with those of UWTSD, allowing for easy academic transition. When you apply to study at UWTSD, our programme coordinators will advise you on which modules you can register for, so that you can transfer credits back to IUMW at the end of the course.

Collaborative

Teaching

All undergraduate dual award programmes have modules taught by academics from the University of Wales Trinity Saint David.

This collaborative teaching initiative adds international exposure to the teaching process and brings in-depth expertise to the learning experience. Having complete modules taught by UWTSD lecturers brings a wealth of teaching styles and international experience to the programmes, and students get to compare and contrast local knowledge and international best practices. With a good mix of lecturers, students are able to experience the best of both worlds.

Student Stories.

IUMW is a growing community made up of students from all over the world. Throughout their journey, students experience tremendous growth on both an academic and personal level. Hear what our students have to say about their experience at IUMW.

Dzulhilmy Mohammad
KYC Analyst, Deutsche Bank
Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) in Finance

I decided to pursue an education at IUMW because the course I wanted had interesting modules that would build my knowledge in the finance world, which I have managed to successfully venture into upon graduating! The accessibility to the Universiti Malaya's library facilities also had its own unique attraction.

I believe my whole 3 years as an undergraduate at IUMW was an amazing experience and as in life, it was a roller coaster ride! One of the things I could highlight from my studies was how helpful my lecturers and peers were in helping me grow as a student. I also had many opportunities to kick start many initiatives when I was part of the Student Council! These experiences helped me grow my soft skills which are very important in order to be employed in a highly competitive job market.

Allyshia Sherina Rama Rao
Audit Associate, YYC & CO PLT
Foundation in Arts, Bachelor in Accounting (Honours)

I wanted to study accounting, so I found the ACCA accreditation of the programme at IUMW an attractive prospect, and made it easier for me to achieve my ambition. I also loved that IUMW was located right in the middle of KL. I got the chance to spend one semester in the UK and experience student life there. This experience helped me to become independent. I was also fascinated by cultural differences, and experienced so many new things.

IUMW organised a career fair which helped me to perform my very first job interview. It gave me the opportunity to secure a job in an international company to pursue my dreams! I'm very grateful to the internship part of the programme, as I was lucky to land my permanent job in that firm! I will always be thankful to IUMW.

Syahmina Zharifah Bt Shahriz
Auditor, KPMG
Bachelor in Accounting (Honours)

I choose IUMW as it offers the dual awards programme which gives the opportunity to study in Wales for one semester. Since it is a collaboration between Universiti Malaya and the University of Wales, I also had the experience of being taught by Welsh lecturers in Malaysia!

For the accounting course, the lecturers follow the professional papers syllabus, such as ACCA. That gave me a greater understanding in the field and encouraged me to pursue my professional papers after I completed my degree. That is one of the reasons I managed to get my career going at one of the Big 4 companies, KPMG!

IUMW encourages students to expose themselves to global learning, as there are a lot of international students from all over the world at IUMW! It greatly improved my confidence and communication skills.

Business Programmes.

A degree in Business lays the foundation for a wide range of career options. There are two faculties within IUMW that specialise in this area; Centre of Foundation, Language and Malaysian Studies and IUMW Business School.

Centre of Foundation, Language and Malaysian Studies

The Centre of Foundation, Language and Malaysian Studies provides a sturdy base for personal growth and academic enrichment at IUMW. Our one-year Foundation programme, fully accredited by MQA, provides multi-disciplinary exposure to students before they pursue their undergraduate degrees. The Centre also manages our IELTS workshop and exam centre, as well as the MPU subjects at IUMW.

IUMW Business School

The IUMW Business School is one of the most enterprising business schools in the region, providing highly sought-after international business qualifications, many of which have additional accreditation from professional bodies. Our goal is to equip graduates with the skills and attributes that will help them compete effectively in the global arena, as future managers of MNCs or successful business entrepreneurs.

ACCA Accelerate programme

ACCA is a top choice for many accountancy students worldwide. At IUMW, the Accounting programme is accredited and aligned with the ACCA approach. With the exemptions, students are already studying towards the final professional-level exams of becoming an ACCA affiliate. Upon graduation, there will be an opportunity to become a qualified ACCA member in just as little as 36 months. The ACCA Accelerate programme supports students in gaining access to the ACCA Careers Job Board and study resources for free.

CPA Australia Fast Track Pathway

An arrangement between CPA Australia and IUMW provides the opportunity for students to complete the CPA Programme examinations in advance via the Fast Track Pathway. Students can register as an Associate Member of CPA Australia and sit for the CPA Programme papers while pursuing their degree at the same time, provided they have completed the required degree subjects in earlier semesters. The remaining CPA Programme papers can be completed after finishing their degree. For more information, contact CPA Australia at: kl@cpaaustralia.com.au.

What Can You Do with a Business Degree?

There will always be a high demand for business graduates as every organisation, regardless of industry, needs people with the right skills to support the planning and management of the company. Working within business can result in a high paying career, with expected salaries increasing again for students with a postgraduate qualification such as Master in Business Administration, who often secure managerial positions. Or for those with entrepreneurial spirit, a business degree can provide the knowledge and confidence they need to make that leap into self-employment. It is no surprise that business graduates are highly sought after, making business and related subjects some of the most popular fields of study at university.

Career Options.

Other career options could be:

- Quantitative Analyst
- Risk Manager
- Customs Compliance Specialist
- Stockbroker
- Import/Export Coordinator
- Auctioneer

Industry Partners.

Employable Graduates

IUMW has a wide network of industry partnerships and connections that engage with students in a variety of contexts to support our mission to create and deliver employability education. This helps you gain real-world expertise and practical skills that will give you a competitive edge in the workplace.

Industry Advisory Panel

The Industry Advisory Panel (IAP) at IUMW was established to provide strategic advice on the university's education and research activities and to promote and strengthen academic-industry collaboration. IAP members include distinguished leaders from private and public sector organisations who are highly valued for their expertise and external industry perspective. The IAP helps form and review programme curriculums to ensure they are tailored towards current and future industry practices.

Industry-Driven Education

We value our strong links with industry, which enables us to support our students' progression in several ways.

- Students are given opportunities to engage with professionals, getting the exposure they need as well as the chance to promote their skills to employers at an early stage
- We hold regular events at the University including workshops, guest lectures, webinars, talk shows and career days, each of which is a stepping stone to a successful career upon graduation
- Students get the chance to embark on industrial-driven assignments to boost their portfolios and prepare them for the increasingly complex demands of the workplace

Internships

Each degree at IUMW includes the chance to gain invaluable work experience through an internship programme - designed to develop job-ready graduates.

Internship Benefits:

- Prepares you for the job market through gaining valuable experience in a professional workplace environment
- Opportunity to expand your professional network
- Build confidence, character and soft skills
- Put into practice what you have learned at university
- Chance to bring fresh perspectives and new ideas into a working environment
